HEAVENLY KING MEETS
PERFECT GENTLEMAN

New Kid on the Block

Paris-based jeweller Messika has landed in Hong Kong, offering its fine diamond jewellery at its first standalone boutique in the city located in Harbour City in Kowloon. Messika is also present in Barcelona, Geneva, London, Dubai, Beijing, Tokyo and Los Angeles. At roughly 700 square feet, it's the largest Messika store in Asia. The daughter of a veteran diamond trader, Valérie Messika set out to reimagine her family's legacy with her own brand, Messika, which she started in 2005.

Sight to Behold

The King of Diamonds Harry Winston has just presented a truly magnificent piece, the Legacy Diamond necklace. The necklace features two rows of 138 marquise-cut diamonds weighing a total of 39.32 carats, and headlined by a 33.29-carat D colour, internally flawless pear-shaped diamond drop and set in platinum. The piece was designed by the house's beloved senior designer, the late Maurice Galli.
